“ Dan, you have the sincere condolences and heartfelt sympathy of Magdalena and me in this difficult time. Gale is now in the everlasting joy of God's peace. She touched many lives with her creativity, her interior peace, and her care for everyone she met. This was fueled by your marriage and the love you shared. I am posting the one picture I have of you two when we were able to meet for dinner with Rich and Jill a few years back. We are grateful to you both for your support over the years, and we walk with you now and always.

“ Dan, I'm sorry for your loss. I've worked on/off with Gale since the early 80's, or maybe late 70's (at Washington National). She was truly dedicated to her work, consistently. And a wonderful person to have on any project team. Hope you are managing through the grieving process well. All the best, Jay
