

George H. Aynilian

November 7, 1944 - July 20, 2025

George H. Aynilian, 80, passed away on Sunday, July 20, 2025, surrounded by his loving family at his home in Mundelein, IL. He was born on November 7, 1944, in Beirut, Lebanon to a devout Armenian Christian family, and immigrated to the U.S. in 1970 where he married the love of his life, Kate and enjoyed a long career in pharmacy at Abbott Labs. George was deeply devoted to his family, faith, and loved sports of all kinds, especially soccer and pickleball. He had been a longtime resident of Libertyville, IL and was a member of United Methodist Church. George deeply valued Armenian heritage and history, as well as contributing to the welfare of others through scholarships and charitable work & gifts. A man of sharp intellect and strong discipline, he also loved a good party, always dancing, loved the ocean and laughed easily and heartily. He loved life and would have liked to stay with us even longer.

Surviving is his wife of 51 years, Katherine Aynilian; 2 children, Jennifer (Pascal) Aynilian Druey and Paul (Shelly) Aynilian; grandchildren, Joel & Anoush Druey; brother, Harout (Sandra) Aynilian and by a sister, Ani Cholakian.

A visitation will begin at 9:30 a.m. until time of funeral services at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, July 24, 2025 at United Methodist Church, 429 Brainerd Ave. in Libertyville. Interment will follow at Lakeside Cemetery. Memorial contributions would be appreciated to Northwestern Malnati Brain Tumor Institute <https://nm.org/givembti> or Armenian Missionary Association of America <https://amaa.o>
