“ Lynn, so sorry to hear about Gibber's passing. We were very good friends after high school and he was even in our wedding! A great guy, lots of fun. One thing i'll never forget is when he painted the letters, HE LP on the left and right soles of my wedding shoes! There I am at the alter, kneeling down with Karen and everyone could see "HELP" from the soles of my shoes. Always a great kidder and lots of fun. Always did have great taste in women and he certainly had a prize in you. God Bless!

“ It is hard to realize we are loosing a good friend from our past. Shall always remember our days at Eastern than the visits to and from your home and ours. They weren't many but they were quality time with our friendship picking up where it left off. George was our friend, my protector when watching a scary show on TV. One of the best things that happened in his life was his marriage to Lynn and being the father to Grant and Paige. We shall miss him. xoxo Jim & Phyllis
