

Georgianne H. AuBuchon

March 21, 1952 - June 12, 2012

Georgianne Helen AuBuchon died peacefully at home on Tuesday, June 12, 2012, after a courageous 26-year battle against her brain tumor. Affectionately called "George," she was born in Chicago on March 21, 1952. Survivors include husband, Charlie of Vernon Hills, son Brad (Kim), daughter, Jenny and sweet grandson, Elliott, all of Chicago. George and Charlie were married for 39 years and organized the annual Vernon Hills Walk for Brain Tumor Research for 14 years. George had a master's degree in education and taught 8th grade math for 17 years, and volunteered in the classroom for many years after her diagnosis. Visitation and funeral services will be at St. Mary of Vernon Catholic Church, 236 U.S. Highway 45, Indian Creek, IL 847-362-1005. Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. on Monday, June 18. The funeral service will be at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, June 19. In lieu of flowers, please consider a contribution to Neuro-oncology Program, NorthShore University Health System; mail to Neuro-oncology Program, c/o Nina Paleologos, M.D., Evanston Hospital, 2650 Ridge Ave., Evanston, IL 60201. Arrangements are being handled by Burnett-Dane Funeral Home, 847-362-3009 or please sign the guestbook at www.burnettdane.com

“ Charlie and family: I was so sorry to hear of George's passing. What an incredible life she was able to lead even with the brain tumor. I so admire her and your entire family for your dedication to helping to find a cure for this unforgiving disease.

Blessings on all of you, Dona Capanyola

“ Charlie,
I am so sad to hear about George's passing. My condolences to you and your family; I will always remember her as that Little Sister of Minerva at our SAE house at NIU with the big brown eyes. She was very special, and you all will have a lifetime of memories to comfort you.
