“ Ginette Bance, my beloved aunt and godmother left us and I'm going to miss her so much. She loved her entire family and took care of all of us when we needed it. I'm so lucky to have had her as my godmother. She's now with her mom and her sister, my mom and other family members that has passed away. I love you. God bless!

*Tante Ginette, Gentle Giant! Stern but Loving!
The glue that held the family together.
I wanted to share a memory that resonates with me to this day.
Tante Ginette approached me one day and told me: do not let me intimidate you.
I see that you have a close bond with Mamie Jacqueline, Tatie Laine, Tante Maryse, Tante Zé, and why not me? Remember that I love you and I will always love you. Don't you ever forget it. These words remain engraved in my memory.
Underneath that stoic appearance lays a heart of gold full of love, compassion and understanding.
Tante Ginette, I will miss you. Rest In Peace. "Job well done".
You did your Best and you have succeeded. I love you
