

Gwendolyn E. Brewer

July 12, 1928 - July 25, 2021

Gwendolyn E. Brewer, 93, passed away on Sunday, July 25, 2021 in Lincolnshire, IL. She was born July 12, 1928 in Champaign, IL, was formerly of Carbondale and had been a 30-year resident of Deerfield, IL. Gwendolyn received a two-year teaching degree from Southern Illinois University and had been a longtime nursery school teacher and director in Deerfield. After her years of teaching, she enjoyed working for Dr. Barron optometry office as a receptionist and vacationing to her family home on Kentucky Lake where she and her husband Dick retired to and where many treasured memories were made with family and friends through the years. She also enjoyed bowling in her early years and playing all card games, especially bridge and Five Crowns.

Surviving is her daughter, Jeanne Brewer; son, Stephen Ray (Julie) Brewer; grandchildren, Tyler Smith and Jessica (Sean Mackey) Brewer & Melissa (Kyle Alhstrom) Brewer and by a brother, Loris (Pati) Lambert.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ray Dickey Brewer and by brothers, Van & Howard Lambert and sisters, Verdene Twomey & Phyllis Golden.

Celebration and interment will be on Tuesday, August 10, 2021 at Oakland Cemetery in Carbondale, IL. Arrangements by Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville, IL. For info: 847-362-3009 or share a memory at www.burnettdane.com.

Tribute Wall

SK

“ Steve & Cindy King lit a candle in memory of Gwendolyn E.Brewer.
We met the Brewer family in the 70's when they moved to Kentucky Lake.
Best neighbors anyone could have.
Lots of fun times and good memories.
Much love and prayers for all of Gwen's family.

Steve & Cindy King Gilbertsville,Ky
Chad King Mont Vernon,New Hampshire

Steve & Cindy King - July 29, 2021 at 07:02 PM