“ Sorry mama..this is way too late...just like Jeff's cards! You were the best mother any crazy girl like me could have...you taught me so many things that I passed down to Liza and Luke...I'm sure they will pass down to their friends and to Sophie, Colette, Hazel (so thankful u met them) and Margaret..u didn't meet her but she got your mamas middle name. We will keep passing on your and dads stories and experiences as long as we can...sorry u had to be without dad...pow...when u passed and sorry I couldn't have been a better daughter...love u always..as long as I'm alive and beyond my mama you will be.

“ I was "let go" after 20 years at Spring Meadows and I have missed Dan and Hazel ... They were one of the nicest couples I have ever known. Rest well, Hazel.
