“ We were so blessed to have Sis Pat and Brother Tom with us in ministry in Largo Florida. They were our family, knowing Darrell, our son, had no living grandparents, they made a decision to call him their grandson and they were Grandma and Grandpa Arvin to him. While reading how many grandchildren, great and great great, I smiled and thought to myself , what a legacy they have. We shall see them again one day and at that time there will be no more good byes. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
