“Helen was a wonderful woman to cross pathes with in life. She was very funny, very patient, and very kind. She was especially kind to my crazy mother to whom she was a very, sweet friend.I never thanked Helen for being a solid friend to my mom. I am quite certain that meeting Helen was one of the saving graces of Mom moving from Chicago to Grayslake--from all that was familiar over a lifetime to new, very lonely roots in Grayslake. It was not easy to be my mother's friend at that time, but Helen was steadfast and enriched her friend's life. I always loved chatting with Helen and listening to her life stories. Forever grateful for meeting Helen. Linda and Cathy and others beloved by Helen: so sorry for your loss. So glad she was tough enough for you to have her in your world to age 96. God bless!
