

Hugh Blair

January 23, 1920 - January 26, 2018

Hugh Thompson Blair, Jr., 98, passed away Friday, January 28, 2018 in Vernon Hills, IL. He was born January 13, 1920 in Middletown, Ohio, was a former resident of Chicago, Northbrook, Mundelein, living in Vernon Hills for the past 4 years. Hugh was the former owner of Blair Manufacturing in Evanston and was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Libertyville. Surviving are his 3 sons, Dr. Tom (Joan) Blair, William Blair and John (Debbie) Blair; dear friend; Helen; 6 grandchildren, Ted, Danya (Charles), Jared, Megan, Lindsay and Jay and by 4 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ann Blair on January 2, 1999.

A visitation will begin at 10:00 a.m. followed by a service at 11:00 a.m.

Thursday, February 1, 2018 at Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville. Interment will be at Ivanhoe Cemetery in Mundelein. For info: 847-362-3009 or sign the guestbook at www.burnettdane.com.

Tribute Wall

BB

“ I'm in Arizona now... and happened to read about Hugh. He and Ann were such wonderful friends to my parents, Herb and Ann. They enjoyed many card games and meals together in Deltona. I loved hearing that he joined your family dinners each week. My thoughts are with the Blair family ~ Keep in touch, Betty Bauer

Betty Bauer - April 27, 2018 at 03:56 AM

RR

“ Mr. Blair - that is what i always called him, he was my first boss at my very first office job in 1982 . it makes me sad to know he is gone, as we all must leave this earth....but what a legacy he and his wife left behind! i was part of birth announcements of Johns kids and anniversary for John and Debbie - and Mr. Blair and Ann. He was a giant man in this family and as i tear up to think of him gone, i smile and i am very grateful to have met him, worked for him and and be a small part of the empire he created RIP Mr. Blair - My sincere condolences to each and everyone of his kids, grandkids and his great grandkids.Rosie Llenza Robbs

Rosie Robbs - April 27, 2018 at 03:56 AM