“ I was Irene's nurse here at Westmoreland. I loved watching her put the little blue curlers in her hair in the morning. She liked her hair fluffy! I called Irene the "poster child" for grandmas. She was always so sweet and kind, and hardly ever complained. She was grateful for any little thing you did for her.

“ Irene was such a lovely and caring lady. We came to know her at family gatherings with Judy and George, where she would share her special sunshine with everyone. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family, while we know the Lord has welcomed her home.
