“ What started as a business acquaintance in the mid-1980's grew into a 35+ year friendship. We were also fortunate to become acquainted with his beloved Barb. Seeing them interact together exemplified all that is right about a marriage. And Jim was such a Godly man. We all could live our lives like him. He will be so missed by all of us who loved him. He was a great man and I am really sad today...

“ *Jim, and his wife Barb, along with all of our Kenloch neighbors, made our 9 years on Kenloch a very memorable time. Jim was always friendly, helpful and caring and we enjoyed our visits with Jim when we visited Kenloch after we moved away. Jim was a great man and great friend. We miss him. “ I met Cindy during my sophomore year at MSU. We lived on brother/sister floors of Hubbard Hall, and quickly became friends. Cindy introduced me to her dad, Jim shortly after.

My first memory of Jim (Mr. King back then) was running into him at a party. This is the only time I remember someone's parents attending one of these events. It felt a little strange at first, but he ended up being a lot of fun to hang out with.

Jim was around quite a bit, which was ok, because he was one of the “cool” parents. There was one time where we decided to road trip to Northwestern for a football game. Jim was kind enough to put up about ten unruly Spartans for the weekend. He grilled steaks one night and made us feel at home the whole time. That is just the kind of guy he was

Thanks for all of the good memories Mr. King. You'll be missed,

Todd
