“ Deb ...its taken me this long to have enough courage to even contemplate any words to say to you. Its been very difficult for me and Joe especially to realize Jim has left you and us. Its amazing how one day the sun is happily out then the next the skies are gray and sad. Our lives change in a split second. Deb....it was difficult to move out of Green Oaks especially from next to my Italian sister.... I miss our private laughing and crying meetings behind our evergreen trees. Jim probably thought it was our secret meeting club. Jim was a gentle soul who loved Green Oaks and loved where he lived. He enjoyed every bit of it. Deb...know Im here not far away. You never bother me. Take your time no matter how long. When you feel like reaching out to me you have my number. I'll be right there. You are a strong woman Deb....Jim knew this. Always remember, Jesus will help you through it all. With the deepest condolences from our hearts
