“ Jean and I have been friends since kinder. We met Jane at Jefferson junior high and Natalie too. We met Inez in college and have since been the “fabulous five”. Some of our best times of mischief were in high school. We spent every day having fun in South Bend. I will miss you Jane.

“ While at NY Hospital-Cornell Medical School, we shared many laughs and good times. It was 1965-66, NY City, our Dietetic Internship. There was a group of us who lived together in the Nurses Residence on York Ave. Jane was in the center of our fun, and I have so many memories of us enjoying ourselves as we learned and explored and even partied together. Our deep sympathies to you and the entire family. Peace be with you.

Jane and I went all through grade and high school together. We also shared a special bond as Bluebirds and Camp Fire Girls. I was saddened to learn our pretty Bluebird has flown away. God bless you all. She was a very dear friend to me. Nancy Stoler Golba

I share in your sadness. Jane and I were friends for 40+ years. I'll always remember the years of baton, Temple carpool, Mah Jong and our years of movies out, dinner in and watching movies, Jim's runs to DQ for that special you liked. May happy memories comfort you and your family.
