What a fun night!!

“ Jeff was a couple years behind me at Stout, and a member of the same Fraternity as I. (KLB's) As Fraternity Brothers we shared many a 'happy time', and I am confident that Jeff enjoyed those times as much as I did! This comes as a real shock to me, as I just saw Jeff and Randy last summer in Shawano at a KLB reunion, and YES he was smiling the entire time! (See the attached Photos) My condolences to the Family. He will definatly be missed by all that knew him.

Joel met Karen and Jeff on a level 4 rafting experience just outside of Moab. I went on a safe walk instead. When I reconnected with Joel at the hotel, he was like a little kid, so excited to tell me about his two new friends. I did meet Karen and Jeff right after that, and I instantly fell in love with them also. A trip to the west coast brought a chance for us to share with them our Village home and area. We decided to meet up a few months after that in Asheville. Joel and I will never forget their laughter from the back seat of our rental car when Apple Maps led us to a dead end instead of the restaurant that we were trying to find while driving in the North Carolina mountains. Then there were their zoom calls. I could go on and on. Oh, I so wish we could go on and on. There will be new trails to explore with you, Karen, our very dear friend.

I've heard it said, that people come into our lives for a reason, bringing something we must learn. (For Good from Wicked). I have learned to try to live life to the fullest from Jeff. His smile will never leave my memory.

“ I feel fortunate to have worked with Jeff at John Crane for more than 15 years. His sharp mind always ensured we never had any legal issues. His positive attitude made working with him a joy. Only recently did we connect personally and wish we had more time to experience the infectious fun that always surrounded the two of you. May your memories be the light that guides you forward. “ Our deepest sympathy to Karen and the family of Jeff. While we have only known Jeff for a relatively short time (about 7 years), he has made a beautifully indelible impression on us. He was a very caring individual and his light shone on all he touched. Rest in Peace! Scott & Mary Engstrom

*Karen has been a nursing colleague of mine since we worked together in California
Jeff brought love, laughter and adventure to their life together. Although I never met him in person, his personality showed in every photo.*
