

Jelena Petrovic

February 3, 1946 - May 4, 2023

Jelena Petrovic (February 3, 1946 - May 4, 2023) of Ljubljana, Slovenia, and Scottsdale, Arizona, passed away. Survived by sister, Dusanka Rancic, nephews, Bojan and Darko Rancic, aunt, Jelica Tucakovic, and cousins, Milan and Iliya Jeknich. She was preceded in death by her mother, Jelka Jeknic, brother, Dusan Jeknic, and late husband Najdan Petrovic. Jelena was a talented chef, cooked in Paris and New York. Loved animals, travel, and helping others. Her generosity and selflessness touched numerous lives and made a lasting impact on her community. She possessed an unparalleled ability to light up a room with her boisterous and joyful presence. Her laughter was a testament to her zest for life and the happiness she effortlessly brought to those around her. Please join us in honoring Jelena's life at the funeral services, which will be held on Wednesday, May 17, 2023 at Saint Sava Orthodox Monastery, 32377 IL-21, Libertyville, IL 60048 and will open its doors for a viewing at 10 am, followed by a solemn ceremony at 11 am. After the services, the family invites you to gather for a traditional Daga meal at the Saint George Serbian Orthodox Church, situated at 31 S Green Bay Rd, Racine, WI 53406. Please note the address, as there is another St. George Church in Racine, Wisconsin. Arrangements by Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville. “ My dear Teta Jelena ... I can't express how sorry I didn't know of your passing until today. I have thought of you so many times over the years. We spent many, many happy hours at your kitchen table, at my folks' house down the road, and loving your various animals on the farm. Say hi to Bo in Heaven and til we meet again, know that I love and miss you. Memory Eternal.
