

Jelica Pavlovic

August 23, 1947 - August 23, 2014

Jelica Pavlovic, 67, passed away Saturday, August 23, 2014 at her home in Chicago. She was born August 23, 1947, raised in Brekovo, Serbia and moved to Belgrade for further education where she earned her degree in Dentistry and met her husband, William Vladan Pavlovic. They moved to Chicago in 1979 for hopes of a better life and better opportunity. It was here that she worked endlessly with her husband, also a dentist and later, with her daughter at their family practice. Jelica enjoyed gardening, was an avid tennis fan but most of all loved and cherished her grandchildren. Surviving is her former husband and dear friend, Dr. William Vladan Pavlovic of Chicago; 2 children, Dr. Bojan (Daca) Pavlovic of St. Charles and Dr. Maja (Milutin Miles) Sukovic of Lincolnshire; 9 grandchildren, Marko, Luka, Maxim, Aleksa, Mateja, Melanija, Anastasija, Mikail and Mane; and also by 1 brother and three sisters in Serbia. She was preceded in death by her parents, Pavle and Mileva Popovic and by her sister, Mica Popovic. Funeral services will be held at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, August 28, 2014 at St. Basil of Ostrog Serbian Orthodox Church, 27450 N. Bradley Rd. Lake Forest, IL 60045. Visitation will begin at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, before services at church. Interment will be at St. Sava Cemetery in Libertyville. Memorial contributions can be made to St. Basil Church or American Cancer Society. Arrangements by Burnett-Dane Funeral Home. For info: 847-362-3009.

“ Dear Pavlovic Family,

We offer you our deepest condolences for the passing of your mother, Jelica. We live next door and she was a very good neighbor. We will always remember her for her love of keeping up her lawn and beautiful rose bushes. God Bless her and your family. Eternal peace for Jelica.

*Respectfully,
Jose' and Kathleen Andrade*
