“ I worked with Jeremiah at Warren special recreation association I remember singing him happy birthday with the group and the smile on his face just lit up the room. He was so excited! He was such a sweet boy. I'm so sorry for your loss. He will forever be your guardian angel. ❤️ Stay strong. -Natalie Schrimpf

“ I had the pleasure of spending time with Jeramiah every morning last year at Woodland Middle School. He brightened my day with his smile, enthusiasm, and genuine happiness that seemingly filled the room. I'm truly saddened by this loss and hope that you find comfort and peace during this difficult time. His beautiful spirit will live on in the loving memories that we all cherish.
