“Dick (sorry, can't help it! I'm still Jackie), Mark, Jimmy, Phillip and Katy, so very sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. Your Mom was my godmother and my second Mom before she married your Dad. She was the last of a really special family. Many, many memories of fun times at Grandma's and at your house when we were all quite a bit younger. While she will be sorely missed, she is at peace now with your Dad and all of her brothers and sister. I truly hope all of you are well and thriving! My thoughts and prayers are with all of you and yours.

“We are so sorry for your loss I loved you and your parents and have many happy memories of our summers together. I miss all of you, but I know your Mom is very happy to see your Dad again in heaven. I would love to get in touch with you and share our memories. My best to all of you and know I will keep all of you in my prayers!

Love
