“Joan was such a wonderful mentor and support when I started my Decorating Den Business in 1998. She was a beautiful person inside and out and a highly talented one indeed. My husband Ed and I will fondly remember the trips we took with Joan, Bob and others on Decorating Den Grand Destination Vavations. Oh what delightful times indeed. Rest in peace sweet. Joan and may the perpetual light of God shine upon you. Our sincere condolences to her husband Bob and the entire family.

“Dear Husband and Family of Joan, I am so saddened by her passing. We anticipated our 50th reunion from Rosary HS. Had a wonderful time which continued into an after party. We said our goodbyes when Bob picked her up with the promise of meeting this summer. How shocked I was to hear of her passing. What a remarkable and talented woman she was. It was evident in the classes we shared. Her beautiful face and smiles are found in many pages of our memory book. My sincerest condolences are extended to you all. Fondly,
Sue Wozniak

“ I posted this on my page the day after Joan died. My friend Joan Susio went to be my Lord, yesterday. She was first my neighbor, next my friend, and then my sister in Christ. It all started with my dog Joanna playing with her dog Dillan. We chatted as we watched them play. We shared our lives. I loved her family and she loved mine. Our husbands became friends as well over snow blowing and yard work. Later Bob was and is a good friend and a brother, a dad to my son, James. Laina would have a chat with Joan when she needed a listening ear. Joan and Bob's home was a safe space for many of all ages. They truly have a gift of hospitality! I could not find a picture of her but I will keep looking. I will see you again my forever friend.

“ I grew up with memories in and out of Joan and Bob’s house being the crazy kids that Marnie and I and all of our friends were :-) this makes me so sad! I love you Marnie and the whole Rettig family! :-)

“ It was a honor and gift to know Joan Suzio! My life would not have been complete without her kindness toward me! I mean I know she must have enjoyed my company because the year i came out to Chicago for summer vacation she invited me over----and she cooked for me! Which was a shocked to all her family! This happened over 20 years---and it still makes me smile when i think about it! My deepest sympathies go out to all of Joan's family and friends!

“ My wife and I have known Joan and Bob through church for many years. The picture posted on the site is such a good choice because it captures Joan's intelligence and joy. When I think of Joan, I remember how much she loved Jesus, how much she wanted everyone to know him, and how she prayed faithfully for people who wanted someone to pray for them on Sundays after church. On a lighter note, I remember hearing how Joan and Bob's neighbor, Joe, would bark like a dog and start Joan and Bob's dogs barking. May God comfort Bob in the loss of his dearly loved wife.

It is true! Joan loved Joe anyway.
