

John A. "Jack" Bank III

March 2, 1933 - October 26, 2023

John A. Bank, III, age 90, of Lincolnshire, longtime resident of Libertyville, passed away peacefully on Thursday, October 26, 2023, with his family by his side. He was born on March 2, 1933, in Flushing, New York to John A. and Irene E. (Walsh) Bank, Jr. Jack met the love of his life, Maryellen A. McGuckin, and began their lifelong adventure, marrying on June 14, 1959.

Jack proudly served in the Korean War for the U.S. Army. The span of his career was spent working in the wine and liquor industry, starting in New York, and eventually relocating to Illinois.

He was a man of adventure; he enjoyed riding his motorcycle, driving his sportscar, and flying private planes. He and Maryellen loved to travel to the Caribbean, Mexico, Ireland, Iceland, and various vacations in the U.S.

Jack's happiest moments were with his family, his dogs, and sharing conversations with his breakfast buddies. Jack was known by many for his wittiness and kind nature, and he will be forever missed by those he loved.

Left behind to cherish Jack's memory are his two children, Cynthia Bank-Fitzpatrick, John (Marybeth) Bank and three grandchildren, Brianna Fitzpatrick, Jack and Hannah Bank.

Jack was preceded in death by his wife of 62 years, Maryellen, his parents, John and Irene Bank, and two brothers, Richard H. Bank and Lincoln Bank.

Visitation will be held on Saturday, November 11, 2023, from 10:00 a.m. until the service at Noon at Burnett-Dane Funeral Home, 120 W. Park Ave. (Rte. 176 one block west of Milwaukee Ave.) Libertyville.
