“ I knew John when he was a senior at Northwestern University and the vice-president of Acacia fraternity at 610 Lincoln Street, Evanston I was a freshman "pledge" at Acacia and John was in charge of that freshman class which numbered about 25 in 1959. John was impressive as a leader, teacher, fraternity guy and he quickly won the confidence and admiration of the freshmen. Just this year I was in e-mail touch with him. He filled me in on some of what he remembered from his Acacia days, most importantly the move of the house from 560 Lincoln Street across Sheridan Road to 610 Lincoln, and the decision of the chapter to hire a house mother. With admiration and affection, Bill Hoisington
