

John "Jack" Miska

March 2, 1959 - October 12, 2025

John P. "Jack" Miska, 66, passed away peacefully at his home in Antioch, IL, on Sunday, October 12, 2025. Born on March 2, 1959, in Chicago, IL, Jack was a cherished resident of the Lakeview and Bridgeport areas for most of his life. He dedicated almost 50 years of service to Sloan Valve Company in Franklin Park, where he took great pride in his work.

In recent years, Jack relocated to The Chain O' Lakes in Antioch, embracing the joys of lake life with his loved ones. He cherished moments spent with his pride and joys: his son Jeff, daughter-in-law Lindsey, and his two grandchildren, Madison and Johnny.

In his final month, Jack embarked on what he called "a trip of a lifetime" to Ecuador and the Galapagos Islands. Throughout his life, he enjoyed many incredible adventures, including travels to Russia, Europe, and China. Despite his far-reaching travels, Jack's heart always belonged to his hometown of Chicago. He created countless memories with friends in Lakeview, relishing dinners, drinks, concerts, and cheering for the Cubs.

Jack was the eldest of six siblings: Janet (Blake) Heffelfinger, Peter, Mark (Maria), Jeannie, Matt, and Marianne (Brian) Napp. He was preceded in death by his former wife, Roseanne Miska.

A chapel service will be held at 12:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 23, 2025, at Graceland Cemetery, 4001 N. Clark St. in Chicago, followed by a celebration of life at Sidetrack Bar, 3349 N Halsted St. in Chicago. Arrangements are entrusted to Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville. For more information, please call 847-362-3009 or share a memory at www.burnettdane.com.

“ John was a rare person, one of those few you’re lucky to meet in a lifetime. I admired John for who he was at his core, an honest, thoughtful, and genuine person. He didn’t judge and always took the time to listen. His sense of humor could brighten any moment, and his calm, steady presence had a way of putting everyone at ease. John was someone you could always count on for advice, for help, or just for a good conversation or story. Whether it was sharing a laugh, offering encouragement, or lending a hand when someone needed it most, he gave of himself freely and without hesitation. Fair, kind, and full of wisdom, John touched my life and the lives of so many others in ways words can barely express. You will always be missed, John, and never forgotten.

Goodbye, dear friend.

“ My cousin, Jack, along with his brother Mark, lived with my family for awhile when I was a kid. Like a brother! Jack was SO playful & funny but ALSO fiercely protective not just for his brother but his cousins, too. No video games then so we'd play school, church & (with me), even Barbies! Sometimes his protectiveness got him into trouble with my mom, mostly bcuz during her tirade, Jack would make JOKES! We'd laugh & then she'd be so frustrated, that she'd be mad at EVERYONE for the rest of the day. 🤔 We'd give him silent treatment for rest of day, but quietly admired how he used humor to fluster my mom!😂😂😂 I have SO many fond memories of Jack. 🙄🙄🙄🙄🙄🙄

“ Jack and I met 20 years ago when I first moved down to the city. He loved to tell the story of me discreetly arriving at Sidetrack in my white shirt, blue suit, tie and black Burberry trench coat...trying to blend in after my 20 year marriage. He knew exactly what was up, introduced himself and offered me invaluable advice on my entry into the gay community. Haha I never wore the overcoat to the bar again. Jack had a style of his own and will be missed. RIP

Cousin here, that he lived with for awhile when we were kids. My family always knew he was gay. BUT he was FAMILY. YES, Jack had AWESOME fashion sense (only "bro" who'd play Barbie with me) ... BUT also VERY PROTECTIVE of family & friends.

Thank you so much for your honest & kind sentiments. Just a cousin, but Jack lived with my family briefly. That time as a "brother" was precious.
