“ Becky, I remember well Jules' homecoming after his terrible auto accident in South Africa. He was all put back together (sort of) and looking very sharp in his Merchant Marine dress whites. From thereon it was clear sailing and a beautiful life together with four beautiful children. Deepest sympathy from Bill Cragg and Pat, Janet, Susie, and Steve. And Bob and Peg from heaven.

“ Jules always wore his Green Bay Packers jacket to church during football season. No one in the congregation could see it except the choir members that stared at it during the entire service. Becky, his wife, was a Chicago Bears fan and his children rooted for the Minnesota Vikings. I stayed away from the Traut Clan during Football season.

Many memories to a true friend! They will stay with me until we meet again
