“ Ken and Julie are people I remember fondly. They were always there when we Waites needed guidance. The fact that they're together forever fills my heart with happiness and joy. She was one sweet sister. To know her was to love her.

“ I got to know Julie when I became her visiting teacher. She was 30 years older and wiser than me, so I always felt like I was the one being taught! Her family was her No. 1 focus, but service to others was important to her as well. One of the sweetest people to walk on Earth, Julie will continue to spread love and joy to others who have passed on, now together with her husband.

“ Julie was a good friend to me. She helped me over some rough patches. She was very creative. Sometimes as I open a drawer or check out my desk, I find a small gift or a card which she made for me. Many of her homemade Christmas ornaments have adorned our tree. I have fond memories of lunches and dinners, birthdays, and anniversaries, celebrated together. It warms my heart to know that she is in the loving arms of her eternal companion.
