“Karl and I were junior officers in the Army stationed in Germany at the same time. We were fresh out of college and rented an apartment together in Boeblingon, Germany. Karl was a great roommate especially since he spoke German which allowed us into German bars and occasionally a private party. We travelled Europe together in his new 1967 Cougar. I had spoken to him 6 months ago about coming to visit me and my family in New Hampshire. I will miss him and keep him in my prayers. Ralph Gault, Portsmouth, NH
