“ I grew up next door to Kata and her family. We lived in the pill hill area. I was a child when Kata arrived in the U.S. Everyone was so excited that she was arriving. There was a big celebration prepared with tables of food and drink. I will never forget seeing her standing at the base of basement stairs, holding Anka. Kata was a big part of our lives. She made the best fried potatoes and Serbian cheese cake. She frequently took me to her church for Sunday picnics. I remember when Diane and Stevie arrived. I just wanted her family to know I will never forget her. The whole family was a big part of my family's life. With much love Pam Burmistrz
