“ Kim was an extraordinary woman, amazing mom, and beloved friend. We became friends in high school – her beautiful smile and positive energy were infectious – and she became my hero and role model for how to live life after her first brain surgery. She managed to stay strong, fearless, optimistic, and have fun no matter what challenge came her way. It's no wonder she had so many great friends! Even though we lived far apart, we got together and took vacations as often as we could. I'll especially miss our joint family vacations and watching our kids grow up together. Kim, you will be deeply missed by so many. May you rest in peace and eternal happiness. Please give Alyssa, Rosanne, and the others who passed before you a huge hug for us. Purple heart.

“ Ive know Kim for about 28 years or so through her brother Steve. I met Tyler when he was just a baby so I'm sure he won't remember me. But I wanted to extend my sincerely condolences on Kim's untimely departure from us. She was a good person and always tried to be there for everyone and help everyone with her medical knowledge. My last note to her was Oct 22 when I reached out to Kim and Robin on the anniversary of Steve's death. Kim - the fight is over now and your with Allysa.
