“Kraig, I will miss you terribly... Renal Failure brought us together, and much as I hate the disease with every fibre of my being, I thank God for it bringing me to to you... I so enjoyed our Skype chats... Technology allowed us to be face to face from different continents!... We used to laugh, and tease each other terribly... Sleep well, my friend, and until we meet again, my God hold you in the palm of his hand..."Don't mourn for me, I'm free The struggle is finally finished My spirit's free, my body's at rest Yet I am not diminished I've simply moved to that heavenly phase Of God's almighty plan Having completed the trials of life In heaven's peace in where I stand Untouched by the pain that assailed my body Unaffected by the illness' rage Grateful that the struggle is finally over That I've moved beyond such a difficult stage Now surrounded by my loved ones who've passed Being joyfully reunited with them...

“What lovely warm memories of chatting with Kraig via FB, and on a couple of occasions, on Skype... I got to know Kraig as a result of him having Renal Failure, and my caring for my mother who also has it...We'd chat for hours about daft things... Share some very warped humour, and laugh about the antics of his cats and my dog... He was such a huge part of my life... Giving so generously of his time, and of himself... I already miss him terribly... Sincere sympathy to his family... Particularly to his mum... Kraig and I often had long chats on FB while she was having her hair done on Thursday... We'd joke about him doing the grocery shopping, and I'd remind him not to forget the most important thing of all... Cat Food!... The world's supply of angel dust has got a lot smaller, but our loss is Heaven's gain... May his gentle soul rest in peace....

“ I met Kraig a few times at the Nostalgia McDonald's Cruise Nights in Gurnee and it was great being able to chat with another Fiero owner, there. So sorry to hear of his passing.

“ To Kraig;s family; I am so sorry for your loss. It's been years since I last talked to Kraig. We became friends years ago on AOL in the Chicago rooms. I remember his as a warm, funny, loving person. He will be missed by so many
