“ *I am saddened to hear of Lois' passing What precious lady! I treasure the time I and my husband Carl were blessed to share with her and Ole. Carl served as Pastor at Unity Lutheran Church in Chicago and it is there, we met and shared many memories. The Lyse's in a way took care of us and made sure we felt at home. Carl and I were newlyweds and when my Mom and Dad came down from Minnesota for their first visit Lois assured Mom, they need not worry , she and Ole would look after us. Wonderful and caring friends. “ Aunt Lois was always there to keep an eye on us when our mother was at work. She would referee our cousin squabbles and reprimand us when we'd do our "balance beam" routine on the top of the fence. But she was also there to treat us with Popsicles and bandage our scrapes and cuts. Aunt Lois was a loving and caring person. I'm sorry that I could not visit more often. RIP dear lady.
