

Lori R. Blazer

September 22, 1965 - September 24, 2015

Lori R. Blazer, 50, passed away unexpectedly Thurs. Sept. 24, 2015 at her home in Libertyville. She was born Sept. 22 1965 in Cottonwood, AZ, was a former resident of Indianapolis, IN, living in Libertyville for the past 30 years. Lori will be remembered for her wholehearted support and her penchant for helping others. She was a mother of two boys yet her maternal love extended to everyone she touched in life. Lori would not hesitate to stand side by side with those in need and provide an objective ear, an open-minded opinion, or a quirky quip to throw you in a fit of laughter, forgetting in that moment, why you were upset in the first place. Lori was a natural mother, friend, and a rock to all, putting others first was her way in life. She leaves a legacy of kindness and compassion that will not be forgotten by those who were blessed to know her.

She is survived by her husband Joseph Blazer of Libertyville; two sons, Jordan Blazer of Knoxville, TN, Cole Blazer of Milwaukee, WI; Mother, Nina (Steven) Cook of Carmel, IN; brother, Brent (Amanda) Cohoon of Whiteland, IN; step brother, Mike (Stephanie) Cook of Fishers, IN and step sister, Julie (Stephen) Carr of Zionsville, IN; by two nieces, Madison, Macy; and by two nephews, Cayden, and Carter.

She was preceded in death by her father Robert Cohoon in 2014.

Visitation 1:00 p.m. until the time of service at 3:30 p.m., Wed. Sept. 30 at Christ Church of Lake Forest, 100 Waukegan Rd. Lake Forest, IL 60045. For her love of pets, Memorial Contributions may be made to Reach Rescue at w

“ I only met Lori briefly. Our sons play on the same lacrosse team. In our brief encounter I saw a beautiful woman and a proud Mom, excited about watching her son play the sport he loved. I instantly felt connected to her. Then I got to know Cole and I felt like I better knew Lori. Cole is a kind and confident young man. Smart, outgoing, gentle, compassionate. I am sure he is in many ways his Mother. May God Bless your family at this most tragic and difficult time.

“ Whenever I think of Lori I think of a beautiful woman who loved her family and was so very proud of them. I also think of how she always asked about my family and was genuinely interested in how we were all doing. Finally, I think of her love for animals and especially her pugs! Everyone loved her in return and will miss her immensely. God Bless.

“ Dear Blazers, We are so saddened to hear about the passing of your loving mom and wife and our wonderful friend. We are so thankful for the years that we spent living next door to your family on Paddock Lane; I am forever grateful for the warmth and friendliness we felt from your family. We have many fond memories of our kids Nick and Abby(now 10 & 11 yrs old) playing on your jumpy in the backyard, playing with your pets, running around in your back yard. Our prayers and hearts are with you now and always. Love, Drew, Maribeth, Nick and Abby Raclaw
