“ From second grade through early adulthood Lorna and I shared so many wonderful times; memories I will forever keep close in my heart. When her beautiful girls, Jennifer and Bethany came into her life, I saw her blossom into an unbelievable mother. Rest in peace dear friend. Sending love and light to your family.

“ So many wonderful childhood memories re-emerged when I heard the sad news of Lorna's passing. We both lived on Lincoln Avenue. I remember listening to music in her house, going to school dances together, and spending hours planning our futures. I send my heartfelt condolences to her family and friends.

“ Lorna was my best friend in 5th Grade...what fun we had in Mrs. Leathers Class! I still have and love the small purple dictionary she gave me for my birthday that year. I've thought of her often over the years. Praying for her family and friends, that her memories help ease the pain. Rest in Peace, Lorna.

“ Lorna was the sweetest! I'll always love her and cherish my memories of her! I was so blessed to have her in my life as a young girl growing up! She treated me like one of her own so I know at times I made her proud and disappointed her! Bethany, thank you for being one of my best friends growing up and sharing mom with me! I love you sister!

“ Dear Jenny, Bethany, and Michael,
You are in my thoughts and prayers. Lorna was one of the sweetest people I knew. We met in sixth grade at Carl Sandburg. I have many good memories of and with her. Slumber parties at Spangle's & Worthen's. Parties at Claire's.
I love the picture you posted of her.
May your loving memories get you through this difficult time.
