“ On this day, September 11 in 2007 my father pasted away and my mother has been waiting to be with him ever since. He was buried on their wedding anniversary September 15. Every fall she has been ill in some way and has been hospitalized at some time until this year when God has finally called her. She will be buried on September 14th to be with dad for their anniversary this year after dying on 9-9-19.

The strength of love binds hard. We will miss you dearly, rest with dad for eternity.

I have so many memories of my aunt Lucy. I always felt a special bond . I remember aunt Lucy telling me that I reminded her of herself. What a compliment. My dad and all her brother s were very close to their only sister. The stories my dad would tell I will cherish forever. My mom Mary and aunt Lucy were like sisters . They were the original “ Lucy & Ethel “ . Aunt Lucy driving grandpas blue truck one day , and says to my mom “ Mare I can’t get the truck to stop. Then looked down and saw that my foot was on the gas peddle. LOL. I loved going there as a child , but loved it more as a “grownup” just sitting around drinking the best coffee ever. I love you aunt Lucy and I will continue with the jokes like you and my daddy .

“ As a child and daughter, mom always had family stopping in to drop off things or just to visit and have coffee. Aunt Josie and Uncle Rocky just lived down the street on the corner. My grandmother was on the other side of the tracks (east side). My moms coffee was the best, percolated 8 O'clock, fresh ground. the scent carried for miles. Uncle Nick and Aunt Mary (Zizi) came over with our cousins Anthony and Mia. we were very young. I remember giving Anthony his hair cut at moms in house beauty shop while they were having coffee. Well, I thought it was fun. Next time they should have us drink coffee with them! My mom LOVED people, no doubt.Lucia-2
