Dear Margaret and Sybil, Please accept our heartfelt condolences as we heard of your loss of Lyle. I taught at Butterfield School and hope you know that our thoughts and prayers go to you at this sad period. We remember you and your kind ways while we taught there. Please pass on our thoughts and wishes for the family for the days coming this month and allow time to heal all of you with good memories of Lyle while here with us all. Sincerely, Carol Ann Betlinski and family
