“ I met Peggy at Kohl's. We started around the same time. We became good friends right away and had a lot of fun together. We went to craft fairs where she brought treats for Baby. We attended an Cub playoff game the year they won the World Series. Thanks to her sister. We had so much fun together. And we ate out off often. I am in shock and really going to miss my friend. RIP Peggy.

I couldn't imagine who would call Bill Willy - so I re-read your note. this was all so sudden that I'm having trouble concentrating. You really put a smile on my face. Mrs. Bergman told me about your health issue. I'm hoping that you are recovering well. Thanks again for your kind note. Are Jim and Judy still with us?

“ I have too many memories of Peggy. She was a fantastic lady. I met her at Kohl's and we became friends right away. She loved her Snoopy. Every time there was a holiday and I saw a Snoopy for it I made sure to got her it. And then there was her Cubs. How she loved them. I remember going to a game with her it was so cold. We sat in front of home plate for the handicap and made it to the 7th inning. We lucked out by getting a bus right in front of the ball park so by the time we got to my stop it was pouring. But we had so much fun that day. Miss you so much. Theirs a special place in my heart for you. Love you Peg.

Terry, she loved you very very much. I remember that day. I gave Peg Cubs' tickets for Christmas, but I only bought her one seat. I never appreciated baseball like Peg and Bill did, so it never occurred to me that she would want someone to go with. I should have bought her 2 tickets for the games. She and I laughed about that one. She told me all about that game, and how you guys got to sit in good seats. I hope you can make it to the funeral service and take some of her memorabilia. We have enough for everyone, as you can imagine. I want to keep a lot of it, but there is so much it would be nice to share it with everyone. She and Baby's cremains will be buried with my Mom. Peg would have liked that.
