“ Brother In Law - Like I told you last week, I never saw your Mom when she wasn't smiling. I'll remember her as always having a smile on her face. I'm sure she is looking down and smiling from Heaven right now, probably talking to your Dad and telling her how good Da Bears are going to be this year :)

Love and Miss You Guys!

“ When I used to go to your parties Barb and Bob, my favorite times were when I sat at your picnic table and talked to your wonderful mom (usually with Cindy and Erin also at the table). She was always so sweet, gentle, and kind; yet funny and quick with a witty remark. Thinking back on those times brings a smile to my lips, and I want to remember your mom that way. Sorry B&B, but the highlight of your parties to me was being with and talking to your mom. I truly loved her!

“ A Mothers Passing

*A mothers passing leaves such a void
To us the living our lives destroyed
No matter the time, the season or age
It's hard when we turn that final page*

*We grieve of memories stolen and lost
Our feelings found vent, our emotions tossed
While heaven bound our mothers pass
To us remaining, pains die is cast*

*We never recover when our parents pass
We fight the good fight but the pain will last
Our lives go on and we run our race
But our parents passing seems to slow our pace*

*Dear Rose, Bob, Cindy and family, we know
Your mother was a gem, a precious woman to behold
A gift from God to all who's lives she touched
To all who love you, and to God, now clutch*

*Remembering all of those special times
In heaven now, the bells loud chime
Mom stands before the throne, where she will meet
Our Savior Jesus, bowing at his feet*
