“ Michele, Jeff and family,
Your mother was an amazing woman. Please accept our most heartfelt sympathies for your loss.

We first met Marianne when we purchased the house next door in 1997.

We became instant friends and over the years grew to be family. Whether it was chatting for hours drinking coffee at home or going on adventures (Train rides to Deerfield, The Cherry Pit, Kohl Children's Museum, Walker Brothers and looking for the newest TY Beanie Babies to name a few), we always found a way to enjoy our time together. We are honored and blessed to have had Marianne in our lives.

“ It was Nov. 12, 1966, one week before Jan & I would be married. A few of the boys, including Bob Miller, had a Bachelor Party of sorts for me. We ended up at a bar in Burnham, Illinois in the wee hours. I can't remember if I met her first or if Bob did or at the same time, but that was when we met Marianne. The rest is history.

“ Marianne was a special cousin to me. She was the older one, all us younger ones looked up to. The sweetest gal, giving, always cheerful. May you Rest In Peace and say hello to all our family up there!
