“ Marie was a gentle lady filled with the joy of the Lord. Her smile encouraged others to do the same.

“ Marie was a breath of fresh air...always with a ready smile or sympathetic ear. I've known a lot of my friends mothers but Marie was one I considered my friend. I can never remember a negative word coming from her. She took life in stride trusting the Lord to light her way. Marie will certainly be missed by Joe and I and I know that Auble family occasions won't be the same without her but great memories and sweet stories of Marie will comfort her family and everyone who had the pleasure of knowing her.

“ All I can say is that Marie was like another mother to me. After my Mom passed away in 2007, I would give Marie and the other ladies in our church who were old enough to be my mother, flowers every Mother's Day. With Marie's passing there is only one of these dear ladies left. Marie is one of my heroes of faith. I love her and will miss her very much.
