“ Marie.....loosing you is one of the hardest thing that happened to me. The moment you left to be with the savior and your husband and family that has gone before. ..left my heart with an emptiness inside. You give me a reason to look forward to going to work every morning. ...knowing that I would see your smiling face.. I will always hold you dear and close to my heart. I feel so lost without you around. I know you are in a better place, but I would rather you be here.....making us laugh on a daily basis, being feisty at time...or when you go in one of your sleep modes when you don't want to be bothered. With all the grief and loneliness I feel with you not being here, I am very thankful for the opportunity of knowing you. I MISS YOU.
