“ If you had the pleasure of meeting Marty-even just one time-you know her smile was sparkling! Singing with Marilyn for years, Marty was often in the crowd-with that shining smile, and as a result it was always super enjoyable to sing to her. I remember when she was living w/ Brent and Marilyn, she would walk around the house to get her 10,000 steps in!!! She was in her 80's, I believe, and I was both motivated others or shamed! The world has lost a shining star, but the heavens are a lot brighter.

“ Marty always had a bright spark that drew people to her: the smile, the hug, the encouraging word, the positive gestures of welcome and good cheer and joy - all attributes of who she was to everyone who knew her well. Our singing group, "All4You," sang at Sunrise Senior Living for many-a-Christmases and Marty's face with that sparkle in her eyes and always the smile - was such a delight to behold! I can only imagine her walking those streets of gold in the kingdom!

We will miss you very much, Marty, as we cherish you in our hearts and our singing. Always.

With love and joy -- Lennie
