“ I had the pleasure of meeting Marvin and Barbara in Guanajuato, Mexico 25 or so years ago! We attended the same Spanish-learning school, and had many fun times hanging out in Guanajuato and neighboring cities. I have loved staying in touch with cards and visiting in Evanston once or twice since. I am just learning of Marv's passing, but would love to stay in touch with Barbara - however the address I have has changed. Please advise a new one, if family is reading this! Thank you. skishelley@yahoo.com

“ Sorry to read of Marvin's death. I enjoyed working with him for many years when we both were at First Chicago, He was a competent and completely dependable partner on many tasks we did together. Herb Prochnow Jr.

“ Uncle Marvin!!! You are so inspiring! I always told people you were the smartest man I know! You loved your books and you loved your opera! Your infectious emotions when listening to the The Three Tenors sold me on opera! I loved seeing you lighten up when you heard them sing.

If there was ever a team to be on it was your team when playing Trivial Pursuit! Did you memorize those questions?? You fooled me if you did!

And how did you always stay so calm when you were angry? No wonder everyone wanted you on their board. You have so much to offer.

Thank you for the memories in Baraboo, WI, even the times around the fire pit reading ghost stories! And the Walnut trees! My kids even know you as the Walnut tree man. Maybe it was the license plate? Speaking of tree's, thank you for your efforts with the family tree! I have had fun using the fact that I am related to the Ringling Brothers! People say it's suiting for me :)

Thank you for being a good big brother to my mother! I am thankful that you invited us to your beautiful home in Evanston during the holidays. The Dalmatians, the cats the laundry shoot! :) The piano.

I am sad to lose you Uncle Marvin! I am thankful I got to sit with you in your home this year and catch up. I will now remember your love for the birds that visited you in the trees at your window. I will see you again! I love you. Lora.....

Thank you all for taping the service!!! It was so beautiful. Everyone did such a great job sharing what we all love about Marvin! It occurred to me that he was just so real, so transparent and so careful to be present with the gentle teachings to who he was speaking to. What a gift. I am inspired to move forward to be a person that leaves such lovely memories for the people around me! We are thinking of you and praying for healing through these sweet memories.
