“ I was truly sorry to hear about Uncle Marv. Although I only met him a few times, I liked him very much. I thought he had a very good sense of humor. He was very kind to us when we did meet and I will always remember that too.

“ I did not know you Marvin, but I am blessed to know your son, Daniel. He is a good man who loves my sister tenderly. That kind of love is from the roots of Daniel's upbringing. Thank you Marvin for raising your son so well, he is a living tribute to your memory. May you rest serenely in the arms of the Lord, until we all meet again. May those same arms tenderly comfort your wife and sons through their sorrow.

“ I was so sorry to learn of my Uncle Marvin's passing. Although, our paths only crossed a few times in life, I've always remembered him to be a genuinely kind, caring and warm man. I was so appreciative when he and his wonderful wife Trudy made time to attend my own wedding years ago and I was given the opportunity to once again visit with Marvin and catch up. From that visit alone, I will always have the warmest memories of this kind and wonderful man.
