“ I remember all my Uncles and Aunts at Grandmas house in Burnside. The holidays were always great, but being with my family was always the best. I would look at the photo albums and I loved the pictures of Uncle Tillio and Aunt Marys wedding picture. Aunt Mary was so beautiful in here satin wedding gown and there was one of her in her uniform. Aunt Mary looked so beautiful in her uniform,too.She has seen so many events unfold throughout her life,her family growing up and sadly going on to a greater reward, being blessed in life to have 3 beautiful children and a big beautiful family, The Foresta's. I will think of the old days and smile. Love Donna your niece.
