“ Charlotte and I first met Mary and her family when we moved to Libertyville in 1970. Her neighborly friendliness was very special and we often think of the Woodland Road community as the best area we have lived in. Mary, Don, Dean and Allen were and have remained very good friends. We treasure our many good memories from the days as neighbors and we share the loss caused by Mary's passing. We pray that she has now found peace with the Lord and that her family finds joy in the many beautiful memories which Mary has left with us!

“ I know that Mary had many people in her life who cared about her and for her. As one of her many handball friends, I will miss her good company, her generous spirit, her kind humor, and her warm friendship. She was the nice, older sister to all of us rowdy guys. Well, some of us were rowdy and some weren't. After she stopped working part time at the health club, she continued to come visit us week after week with a cooler of beer and snacks so that we could relax, sit around and talk for an hour or so every Thursday night. She lived with her disease for a bunch of years, much longer than the doctors thought she would, and always maintained a calmness of spirit that was both admirable and remarkable.
