“ To the whole Ruzbasan Family, so sorry for your loss. I will miss Mrs. Ruz dearly. She was my favorite soccer mom/coach. I remember when she and my dad coached one of our Celtic Teams she was the one that kept all of us boys in line. She was a big part of my youth and I am glad she was a part of my life. Love you Mrs Ruz.

“ Mary Lou and Ted put on a tournament experience for soccer referees like no other. No one can match how well you were treated at one of their tournaments, nor have they even come close to it. This is a sad day for soccer referees throughout IL. Words can't describe what Mary Lou meant to the soccer referee community. I am deeply saddened by this loss. Every time I step onto a soccer field in the future I will be thinking of Mary Lou. Her smile and vibrant personality are one of the things that have kept me going in this for so long. Mary Lou, you will be dearly missed. Ted and family, may I send my deepest condolences.

“ Marylou was so good to referees. I remember the Labor Day Palatine Celtic tournament when the Ruzbasans would rent an RV and Mary Lou cooked food fit for a king to feed an army. She would go the extra mile for referees and refs would go the extra mile for her. Requiescat in Pacem.
