“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I haven't seen Mickey for many years, but the times we did share together, working at Baker's Square, have remained very fond in my memory. He was always not only quick to smile but quick to make others around him smile. I remember him having a light within him, and he would never hesitate to share that light with others. The world lost a good and giving man. My sincerest condolences. -Christian

“ I went to highschool with Mickey, and would later see him over the years as we shared mutual friends. I'll never forget how quickly he learned to play the guitar, and just how amazing he was at it! As good of a guitar player as Mickey was, he was an even better person. I'm greatly saddened to hear of Mickey's passing, and would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to his family and closest friends.

“ Dearest Issey, I only just found out you know, and I am so very sorry for you and your family. I can't believe that Mickey was so grown up, cause for me he's still the scrawly teenager with the big smile. I spoke with Mickey when I lost Alvern and he was so comforting, and shared stories of his service time, and had me laughing. Please know that I am praying for you and your families. God is able to give us what we need at this time, all we have to do is Trust His Holy Word. I will reach out soon. You are a strong woman of faith, this I know, and I know that you will be comforted, with Mickey at peace = no pain. Sending love, and hugs until I see you. God bless you.
