“ Our Dad, Michael Mobile, enjoyed life and Family more than anything. He will be remembered for his famous back yard BBQs in Libertyville. He moved to Bradenton Florida in 2004 where he enjoyed working in his yard, walking his dog and driving his Mustang. Mike was very mechanical and handy around the house being dubbed with the nickname of Mike-fixit.

As a true Chicagoan he loved the Cubs and Bears too. Mostly the Cubs. You'd always see him in ahis Cubs hat. We all liked to give him Cubs gifts. Mike liked to talk with his son Ken about the Cubs and Bears, and watching them when they could. One of the most exiting memories was the night the Cubs won the World Series. We all tried calling Grandpa Mike at the same time, but Ken was the first.

Most of all he loved having family and friends come to visit. Michael was friendly and open hearted. He welcomed all with acceptance and hospitality and joy into his life and home. We'll all miss you Dad, Grandpa ❤️

“ Memories of my Dad. From the front porch.

My Dad, Michael Mobile, enjoyed life and Family more than anything. Family meant everything to him. He will be remembered for his famous back yard BBQs the weekend of his birthday June 19th and Father's Day, back in Libertyville. He loved making Brandy Alexander's on Christmas Eve (something my family talks about often when we're thinking about my Dad). He loved his Mustangs too. He had one of the first Mustangs in 65/66. Boy do I wish we still had that one.) I don't think I'll ever have a chocolate donut or eggplant parmigiana without thinking of my Dad.

My Dad moved from Libertyville to Bradendton in 2004 and never regretted it. Florida was good for him. With h telephones and Facebook he was never far away. He'd talk to his sisters, nephew, and of course his children even grandchildren on the phone often. It's probably going to be a long time before I forget our daily calls. Or if I was driving with the grandsons calling Grandpa Mike just to say I Hi Grandpa.

He so loved his place in Florida. In the mornings and other times of day you'd see him sitting in his front porch just listening to the birds and the peacefulness of his home on Miami Place. He'd watch the few neighbors walking their dogs and wave as they went by. He'd love walking his own dog Max with kitty following them down the road. My Dad would also enjoy working in the yard. A never ending job in Florida.

I'm going to miss my Dad so much. Visiting with him and sitting on his front porch watching the world go by.

My Dad is the last of his generation in the Mobile family. Our last connection to a time and culture gone by.

My heart is full. I have so many memories of my Dad these are just a few. ❤️

Mike was so talented. I recall a visit with Debbie in Baraboo. Before retiring for the night, we tried to lock the outside door, and couldn't even close it. Panic! Debbie called her Dad, who was also in Baraboo. He rushed over and quickly fixed the door! We slept like babies. Thanks, Mike. Always, everyone's champion.

This also is my fond memories of my beloved dad, as we sat daily on his lanai this spring/summer. I'm also going to restore his 2000 Mustang, which will keep in my thoughts often. 💕

Fond memories of being neighbors with Mike and of all the projects we helped each other with working in our yards or house. Talking across the fence to each other. He'd always start cooking on the grill and call out come on over for some Italian sausage. We shared a lot of good food and good times. I gained a very good friend with him and I also gained his family 💕

I've gotten closer to my cousin Mike over the years. We were both alone. We talked every other day, and I visited him every two weeks. We shared a meal, as well as looking over the family photos of our younger years. No matter how many times we looked at those photos, it brought back the warmth and love we had for the family. He was always happy to see you, as the smile showed all over his face. I cherished him in life, and he is a great loss to me now.
