“ Back in Romania, many years ago we used to be very close, especially during University, when we first met and built a lasting friendship. Then life separated us. Mike went to the US, I stayed in Romania for a while, then went to Canada and back to Romania again after retirement. My deepest regret is that while we still kept in touch, I was never able to see him in person since his arrival in America.

Sincere condolences to his grieving family.

Mike, I hope we'll see each other in a better world!
