“Milly and her husband Eddie were always two of my favorites of Bonnies legion of aunts, uncles, cousins. I always felt honored that she had me install her new HVAC system way back when we first began the company. Hey Milly, want you to know the whole time I was installing it I felt Eddie with me, watching me, helping me, and offering advice. I had to keep telling him though that a frosting coil is not a good thing. :)

I know you will be missed by many.
