“ I'm a long-time friend of Myrle (and Bill) at the United Methodist Church in Libertyville. She was such a sweet (and funny) lady. She asked me once if I ever saw a picture of her 'Pride and Joy?' I waited, assuming she was searching through her wallet for a picture of a precious family member. But no... she pulled out a picture showing a can of Pride polish and a bottle of Joy dish-detergent. She totally cracked up when she saw my expression. I'm wondering if she's using that joke in Heaven. Terry Johnson

“ Aunt Myrle you were the best God Mother a girl could ever ask for. Your loving ways and all the beautiful things you made, blankets, dolls. Also, the best cookie maker ever. You always had those chocolate chip cookies on the counter whenever we came to visit. Love you and will miss you but now you will be in heaven at peace with Uncle Bill and all your family.

“ The Madole's lived across the street from us on Woodland Rd. So many wonderful memories of Myrle. She taught me how to crochet. She always made the best Rhubarb pie. It became a tradition every year for my birthday She would walk across the street with my very own Rhubarb pie. My brother Bob was always so jealous. She was always my second Mother. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Myrle was one of kind. God Bless.
